Evaluating web sites: Putting it all together

You’ve been given an assignment about doctor assisted suicide / euthanasia which presents arguments from both sides. During your online research you find the following items:

1. Wikipedia article: Euthanasia in Canada
   http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Euthanasia_in_Canada
2. Euthanasia and assisted suicide - Arguments
   http://www.nhs.uk/Conditions/Euthanasiaandassistedsuicide/Pages/Arguments.aspx
3. Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide in Canada
4. Legal physician-assisted dying in Oregon and the Netherlands
   http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC2652799/
5. Barbara Kay: Let’s not become Belgium when it comes to assisted suicide

Using the Evaluating Web Sites Checklist (Guides A-Z → Help with Library Research → Evaluating Websites), decide how you would use each source in your research process, if at all. Circle all that apply.

1. Wikipedia article: Euthanasia in Canada
   - Background research to better understand the issue before searching elsewhere.
   - Basis of the main point of your paper.
   - Example of a particular point of view.
   - Source of references to other articles and items on the topic.
   - No use at all.
